KNOWLEDGE IN BLOOM GROWING OUR ONLINE LIBRARY

Since June, Westlaw UK's online book library has been expanding. We now have over 60 market-leading commentary titles available and have many more titles still to come.

We have also begun the digitisation of a number of looseleaves, with some titles having already sprouted up on the service.

We feel this growth spurt gives you unprecedented online access to some of the most important insights from the industry's leading minds.

Recently added titles to Westlaw UK include:

- Lindley & Banks on Partnership
- Snell's Equity
- Lewin on Trusts
- Documentary Evidence
- The Law and Practice of Compromise
- Theobald on Wills
- Delay and Disruption in Construction Contracts
- The Law on Financial Derivatives
- The Law of Insolvency
- Boilerplate: Practical Clauses
- Jurisdiction and Arbitration Agreements and Their Enforcement

For all other destinations, delivery charges will be notified at the time of order and are generally calculated on the basis of weight and ship-to destination.

The Information in this Catalogue

Prices, discounts, dates and other information are correct at time of going to press, and are subject to change without prior notice.

To keep up to date with any changes, please visit our website.

PRICES AND VATPrices not known

Where prices for products are not known at the time of an order, the price applied to such products will be the current published price at the time of availability as listed on our website.

Prices where a discount applies

For any customer receiving a discount (including the trade), discounts do not apply to delivery charges; accordingly discounts will be applied to the price once the delivery charge (if applicable) has been deducted but the total price you pay will still include the applicable delivery charge. For information on the price net of the delivery charge element, please contact customer services.

VAT

UK VAT is charged on all applicable sales (including delivery charges, where relevant) at the prevailing rate except in the case of sales to Ireland where Irish VAT will be charged at the prevailing rate. Customers outside of the EU will not be charged UK VAT.

For customers in an EU member state (except UK & Ireland) please supply your VAT number when ordering.

TERMS OF TRADING

All orders are accepted subject to our Terms of Trading (available from sweetandmaxwell.co.uk or on request) and relevant Service Terms for our CD and online services (available with the product/service if not supplied to the customer prior to placing the order).

YOUR SWEET & MAXWELL SATISFACTION GUARANTEE

The Sweet & Maxwell customer promise means that if you are not totally satisfied with the goods you have ordered you are protected under our 30-day satisfaction guarantee. As long as the goods are returned within 30 days of the date of the invoice, in good re-saleable condition and according to our returns procedure, your order will be cancelled and you will owe nothing or will be refunded the price of the goods. Applicable in the UK and Europe only.

The satisfaction guarantee does not apply to certain goods (where specified), releases/issues of print/CD subscription products (except Charge by Release issues to which it does apply), online services, print sales supplied as part of a print/online bundle and sales made to the book trade under Trade Terms.

RETURNS PROCEDURE

All goods are to be returned in accordance with our Customer Returns Procedure set out in our despatch notes and available from: <http://www.sweetandmaxwell.co.uk/customer-support/returns.aspx> or by contacting us on 0845 303 7213 (UK) or +44 1264 388560 (export) or +44 1264 388570 (import) or 0845 082 1032 (trade).

Sir Bernard Eder, David Foxton, QC, Steven Berry, QC, Christopher Smith, QC and Professor Howard Bennett

- Provides an overview of the legal principles of charterparties and bills of lading based on Scrutton's original commentary and the accrued experience of previous authors
- Covers the different types of charterparties: time charters, voyage charters, and demise charters, and lays out the nature, validity, and construction of each
- Provides a first port of call for research when both drafting and disputing contracts
- Helps clarify uncertainties in points of principle, illustrating them through a wide variety of case material
- Deals with the contractual and technical challenges involved in the legal administration of leasing a commercial ship
- Covers the 100 new related cases since the last edition
- Defines bills of lading as contracts, and examines the liability of the shipowner for loss of or damage to goods
- Examines the issue of damages for failure to load or carry cargo properly or in reasonable time
- Looks at the consequences of not signing or presenting bills of lading
- Discusses limitation of liability
- Special features for the 125th Anniversary Edition include a biography of Scrutton written by the authors, articles and obituaries on Scrutton, plus a re-examination of key historic cases
