HEAR FROM THE EXPERTS

Robin Purchas QC is the Head of Chambers at Francis Taylor Building in the Temple. His main areas of work are in the field of administrative, environmental, local government and planning law in the High Court and tribunals and inquiries. He is also a leading specialist in compulsory purchase, valuation and compensation matters and has wide experience in connection with the promotion of and opposition to major government and public infrastructure schemes. He is immediate past chairman of the Planning and Environment Bar Association and the Leader of the Parliamentary Bar. He sits as a deputy High Court judge and a recorder of the Crown Court.

Steve Quartermain is the Chief Planner for the government and brings 30 years of planning experience to the role. Steve was President of the Planning Officers’ Society in 2007/8 and worked with the Yorkshire branch of the RTPI for 20 years. Steve is Head of Profession.

John Pugh-Smith, of 39 Essex Street Chambers main areas of practice are planning and environmental law, with related local government, parliamentary and property work. He also practises as a mediator in more wide ranging disputes. John is the originating author and now general editor of Neighbours and the Law, co-author of Archaeology in Law, general editor of Shackleton’s Law of Meetings and joint editor of Property, Planning and Compensation Reports (all published by Sweet & Maxwell) and a regular speaker at Sweet & Maxwell’s Annual Planning Law Conference.

Richard Wald was called to the Bar in 1997. He specialises in all areas of planning, environmental and public law. He is the General Editor of Sweet & Maxwell’s Encyclopedia of Environmental Law and the co-author of Butterworth’s Highways Law and Practice. In 2008 he was appointed to the Attorney General’s B-Panel of Counsel to the Crown. He is regularly rated by Chambers & Partners, the Legal 500 and Planning Magazine as one of the UK’s top juniors in the areas of Planning Law and Environmental Law.

Robbie Owen is a planning and infrastructure lawyer and Head of Major Projects at Bircham Dyson Bell. He is also a Roll A Parliamentary Agent. He has over 20 years’ experience of successfully promoting and opposing a wide range of infrastructure and other major projects, advising both the public and private sector, promoters and objecters. He heads up one of the largest planning law teams in the UK which is supported by an in-house public affairs and communications consultancy. Since 2007 Robbie has been a member of the Planning Sounding Board. Robbie also co-edits Butterworth’s Planning Law: A Practical Guide to National Infrastructure Projects.

Kevan Carrick BSc. (Est.Man), FRICS CEDR Accredited Mediator. As a chartered surveyor and property consultant, Kevan has advised government, development agencies, local councils, public/private partnerships, investment funds, property investors and development companies, corporate and small businesses, charities, and individuals. He is spokesman on Policy for the RICS North East Region of England, commenting on European and UK national and regional policy matters affecting property, construction, land and the environment.

Nigel Hewitson is Head of Planning at international legal practice Norton Rose LLP. He has over 20 years’ experience advising clients on planning law. Having worked in local government and as Legal Director at English Heritage before going into private practice, he is perhaps uniquely qualified to speak about heritage issues.

Kate Henderson MEI CEnv MSc DIC is the Chief Executive of the Town and Country Planning Association (TCPA), where her role is to further develop, share and articulate the TCPA’s policy and campaigns agenda. Kate has developed and managed stakeholder relationships with key policy influencers including government, opposition parties, MPs, civil servants, NGOs, trade associations and academics, most recently managing the Planning and Climate Change Coalition. Kate regularly writes for trade publications and journals, including writing an expert paper ‘the case for climate change adaptation’ as part of the TCPA-led European project in adaptation. She is a Professional Member of the Energy Institute and a Chartered Environmentalist.

Ben Linscott is the Inspectorate’s Assistant Director (Planning) and has been an Inspector since 1996, having previously worked in local government and private sector planning. He manages the S78 appeal service and takes the lead on a number of Inspector specialist areas. He has been heavily involved in the reform of the Appeals system and in promulgating best practice, internally and externally.

BOOKING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Payment must be made before the conference, unless specific arrangements have been made to the contrary. A VAT invoice will follow acknowledgement of booking. Once submitted this booking form constitutes a firm booking which can only be cancelled in accordance with our cancellation policy set out below. Once we receive your booking form we will send you a booking acknowledgement, with directions to the venue. This will be emailed to you from our parent company, Sweet & Maxwell. If you have not received this acknowledgment prior to date of the conference, please contact us on 020 7393 7589.

Cancellation Policy
Bookings may only be cancelled by written notice (by fax to 020 7393 7790 or email to conferences@sweetandmaxwell.co.uk) received by us no later than 10 working days before the date of the conference (i.e. 25th October 2010). This must be followed by a telephone call to us to confirm receipt. You will then be sent a refund of your delegate fee, less an administration charge of £50 + VAT for each delegate booking that is cancelled. Telephone cancellations will not be accepted. Refunds of delegate fees for late cancellations (i.e. cancellations other than in accordance with the above paragraph) will not be given.

Failure to attend the conference will constitute late cancellation and payment will still be due or forfeited if already paid. We reserve the right to change the programme, date, content, price, speakers and venue as necessary, or cancel the conference totally in which case we will refund any payment made in respect of the cancelled conference.

Substitute Delegates
Substitute delegates can be accepted at any time, without charge. Please telephone the Conference Administrator on 020 7393 7589 to let us know the name of the substitute.
